

Love for All! and Can It Be?

D A/C# Bm D G/D Bm /A

Love for all! and can it be?
 I, who spurned his lov - ing hold;
 See, my Fa - ther wait - ing stands;

Can I hope it is for me—
 I, who would not be con - trolled;
 See, he reach - es out his hands:

G Em A Bm G/D D

I, who strayed so long a - go;
 I, who would not hear his call;
 God is love; I know, I see,

Strayed so far, and fell so low?
 I, the will - ful prod - i - gal—
 Love for me, yes, e - ven me.

G F#m Bm G Bm A D

I, the dis - o - be - dient child,
 To my Fa - ther can I go?

Way - ward, pas - sion - ate and wild;
 At his feet my - self I'll throw;

G A Bm G Em A

I, who left my Fa - ther's home,
 In his house there yet may be

In for - bid - den ways to roam;
 Place, a ser - vant's place, for me.

Text: Samuel Longfellow

Tune: Mitchell Fund