

Cassini

Mitchell Fund

Start with part 1, repeating once, and then add part 2, repeating once. Add layer by layer. Once part 7 has entered and repeated, all voices tacet for one measure. Then add part 8, repeat four times with all parts and end abruptly.

Slow crescendo throughout.

Driving ♩ ~ 132

1 - Lead
I've been go - ing a - round and a - round.

2 - Harmony
Tak - ing these pho - tos and send - ing them home.

3 - Ostinato
ya da da da da da da ya da da da ya da da it's time.

4 - High
fall - ing and fall - ing, But I love

5 - Low end of my jour - ney one last thing to do. The 6 - Crunch

Thread - ing through rings and fall - ing through the clouds.

7 - Snaps
Oh all these sights I've seen. It's been a real-ly good one.

All voices one measure tacet before adding part 8.

8 - Descant
fall. I (repeat four times)

On September 15th, 2017, after nearly 20 years in space, 13 of which were spent meticulously researching Saturn and its moons, the extremely successful Cassini space probe, running out of fuel, was deliberately crashed into Saturn to prevent any contamination of its moons.

Like Cassini, accompanists are often undervalued and will rarely turn down baked goods in appreciation for their hard work. Just saying.