

Ozymandias

Text - Percy Bysshe Shelley

Music - Mitchell Fund

Freely ♩ = 60

mp

I + II

I met a trav-'ler from an an-tique land,

mp

III

mm

6

I + II

Who said- "Two vast and trunk-less legs of stone stand in the de - sert.

III

11

p

I + II

mm

p

III

Near them, on the sand, Half sunk a shat-tered vis - age lies,

16

I + II

III

whose frown, And wrin-kled lip, and sneer of cold com - mand,

20 mf

I + II

Tell that its sculp-tor well those pas-sions read Which yet sur - vive, stamped

III mf

mm

26 mp

I + II

on these life-less things, mm

III mp

The hand that mocked them, and the heart that

31 ff

I + II

'My name is

III ff

fed; And on the ped-es - tal, these words ap - pear: 'My name is 36

I + II

O - zy - man - di - as, King of Kings; Look on my Works, ye

III

O - zy - man - di - as, King of Kings; Look on my Works, ye

43

I + II
Might - y, and de - spair!
p
mm

III
Might - y, and de - spair!
p
Noth - ing be - side re -

I + II
mains. Round the de - cay
Of that co - los - sal Wreck, bound-less and

III
mains. Round the de - cay
Of that co - los - sal Wreck, bound-less and

49

I + II
The lone and lev - el sands stretch far a - mp
rit.

III bare mp
mm

I + II
way."
Very Freely dim.

III
dim.